THE AUTUMNAL SEASON | Went to Portsmonth yesterday to escort Mrs. OPENS UP, REDOLEST WITH THE ODOR OF ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

Two Weddings Already and Seven to Follow in Rapid Succession Unusual Sumbers of Dinners, Teas, and Small Evening Companies Personal Mention.

Weddings, betrottals, and "growing attachments" have been almost the only topics of conversation in society during the past week. The latest gossip reports nine weddings for the season, two of which have already taken place. Of course everyone is anxious to know where the other seven are, A young lady who ought to know counted them up Saturday, as follows: A double wedding on South Market street, two; two weddings on North Limestone street, four; two on Chiff avenue, next door neighbors, six; and the list is complete by the young (no pun intended) couple who are to occupy Mrs. Rebecca Rowley's house on They are Limestone street. going rapidly, and now that the ball is started, there is no telling where it will stop rolling. Of course, all these matrimonial festivities will make the season somewhat more gay than usual; but if they do as those who have gone before, what is to become of Springfield society? They rob it of some of its most brilliant lights. If, after marriage, they all settle down to the dull, stay-at-home life that the younger married people of Springfield seem so food of, there will be no such thing as a party until the "younger set" grow old

The marriage of Harry Hank to Miss Bessie Endslow, at the residence of the bride's mother in Dayton, last Wednesday evening. is reported by those who attended -and there were no less than twenty from this cityas one of the handsomest little weddings they have ever seen. Mr. and Mrs. Hauk are expected from the East the latter part of this week, when they will receive their friend- a "Sunnyside," East High street,

The marriage of Mr. Frank Webb and Miss Lizzie Steele, at the home of the bride on East Main street, last Thursday evening, was quite a surprise to their triends, only three or four suspecting that the event was so near until the invitations were issued last Monday morning. It was exceedingly quiet, only relatives being present, and the ceremony performed with those most interested dressed in travelling costume. Cake was not distributed among the crowd of curbstone

The wedding of Mr. Bert Geiger, of Cliff Avenue, and Miss Fannie Moore, of Portsmouth, for which invitations were issued last Monday, takes place at the residence of the bride's parents in Portsmouth next Thursday afternoon at five o'clock. Quite a party of Mr. Geiger's friends from this city will attend, leaving here tomorrow evening

As Miss Laura Bowman is paving her part. ing calls, and as Mr. George Eldro, of Indianapolis, drops into the city about once per week, it looks very much as though the other Cliff avenue wedding was not very far in the Last Tuesday evening Miss Minnie Kizer, of North Limestone street, entertained Miss long: Susie Comley, of Toledo, with a very delightful little progressive eachre party. The Bet Was Off.

Detroit Free Press. A few days ago, after a couple of esteemed citizens who are close neighbors, had arranged o pass a few days with their families at a lake in Oakland county, one of them offered to wager a box of cigars that he would catch the largest fish. The wager was promptly taken, and next day one of the gentlemen put in an appearance at a fish stand on the market, and said to the dealer :

"Have you got a fresh pickerel weighing about fifteen pounds? "I have, sir. "Well, I want you to put him on ice and ship him to me at —— lake. I propose to catch him on a hook out there. "Very well, sir. I think I'll ship the two The two?" "Yes, sir. Mr. - [mentioning the other seteemed citizen] was here an hour ego, and bought one weighing twenty pounds. It will take less ice to pack the two in the same The fish were paid for, but the bet was de-

When purchasing Shoes it is more economical to secure the best quality, price considered, than to ignore quality in order to avoid a slight additional outlay. We have a medium grade of Shoes, made of excellent stock without expensive or unnecessary finish, covering all sizes for Men, Women and Children, which for service and value to the wearer are really worth more than others of greater cost. They are not quite as low-priced as shoddy goods, but are ten times more desirable. Persons who understand how to economize will find that our stock affords them an opportunity. We have no shoddy goods, and will not give them place in our store. They are dear at any price. Our aim has always been to give a better Shoe for the money than any other house in the city, and we have been eminently successful.
